Advertising on the Website

It is still official, members of Lewis & Clark Home Builders Association can now advertise on our website!

Ad's will be located on the Home page, along the bottom of the page and will be placed into a random rotation for that page. Each Ad will also have the capability to link to your business website.

Ad costs are $10/month available at 6 month or 12 month increments, and members can sign-up and pay right online!

Each Ad size is 175 x 70px, and can be submitted when you sign-up through our website.

Just another way our association promotes its members!

Note: Some of you signed up at a Social a few months back. That was before we started the Official sign-up and payment online. If you signed up at that meeting, please visit the website and fill out the Official Application along with your payment submission. If we need further information, you will be contacted!
